Skylar Love Hinds is a 20-year-old entertainer who sings, acts and has her own makeup line- Sky Beauty Cosmetics. Skylar Love has been performing since the age of 7 at notable venues - BB Kings, Apollo Theater, Stage 72, Mayor of New York's office, major New York parades - West Indian Day Parade and recently been featured in the movie-A Teenage Story. At age 14, Skylar wrote and debuted her two singles Birthday and Snow in July. In addition, Skylar has volunteered her time performing for many non-profit events - Feeding the Homeless and St. Jude's Hospital. And now, will be creating and releasing new music.

When Skylar was just a little child, she began singing solos in the church choir of her community, and at the age of six, she started collaborating with her grandmother to write music. This is when Skylar first developed a deep love for music. Around the time she was 7 years old, she began giving live performances, and she has loved wowing audiences ever since. Skylar states: "I can express myself via music and discuss some of the challenges I've faced as I've matured over the years, from broken relationships to being independent and being a woman. As I develop as an artist, I hope that my listeners can connect with my music and share some of those emotions with me." At the age of 14, she produced and released her debut single, "Birthday," and more recently, after releasing her most recent track, "Stay Away," she started working on an EP that will be released in the upcoming spring. Skylar wants to build a platform for her music career and share her skills and creativity with the world.
